

Choosing Faith Over Fear

A Worksheet for CEOs & C-Suite Leaders

INTRODUCTION

In the midst of growth and momentum, wise leaders pause to gain perspective.

This worksheet is designed for CEOs and executive leaders stewarding organizations of meaningful size and mission. It offers a focused, purpose-driven framework to evaluate strategic direction, organizational clarity, and leadership alignment.

Lead boldly. Lead intentionally. Lead with clarity—and trust that the seeds you plant in faith will bear fruit in due time.

Choosing Faith Over Fear

A worksheet to help you discern your next obedient step as a leader.

1. Name the Decision

What decision, tension, or situation are you currently facing? _____

2. Describe What Feels Uncomfortable

What about this decision feels heavy, risky, or uncertain? _____

3. Identify Possible Fear Signals

Check any that apply:

- I keep revisiting this decision without new information.
- I sense God nudging me, but I keep postponing action.
- I am more focused on what I might lose than what God might be building.
- I am seeking reassurance more than seeking God's direction.
- I feel stuck between caution and obedience.

Other observations: _____

4. Return to God First

Before analyzing further, pause and pray.

Write a brief prayer or reflection: _____

5. Recognize What God Has Entrusted to Me to Steward

What responsibilities, people, resources, and influence has God placed in my care?

6. Separate What I Am to Steward from What I Am to Release to God

What is within my control?

What must I release to God?

7. Clarify the Next Obedient Step

Not the whole plan. Not the final outcome. Just the next right step.

My next obedient step is:

8. Identify Who I Should Invite Into This

List one or two people who will point you toward Scripture, truth, and wisdom.

9. Commit to a Simple Action

What small action will I take, and by when?

Action: _____ By (date): _____

Closing Prayer

Lord, help me choose faith over fear. Give me clarity for the next step, courage to obey, and trust to leave the outcome in Your hands. Amen.

"What time I am afraid, I will trust in thee."
